DOE Awards Small Business Support Contract to Chenega Global Services

Cincinnati -- The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) today awarded a small-business contract to the Chenega Global Services LLC, Anchorage, Alaska to provide support services to the Environmental Management Consolidated Business Center (EMCBC), and to small cleanup sites managed by the DOE Office of Environmental Management. This contract was awarded under Section 8(a) of the Small Business Act. The contract will have a $25 million ceiling with a three-year performance period and no extension options. Specific task orders will be issued against the contract.

In addition to providing support services to the EM Consolidated Business Center in Cincinnati, the Chenega Global Services employees will also provide support to Environmental Management small sites projects that include several former nuclear weapons production or research sites across the nation.

Services under this contract will include:

- project support
- risk analysis
- resource load scheduling
- cost estimating
- technical support
- project analysis
